* HYMN - A Little Child the Saviour Came

◆ SACRAMENT OF INFANT BAPTISM ◆

Statement of Purpose

The sacrament of baptism
proclaims and celebrates the grace of God.
By water and the Spirit,
we are called, claimed, and commissioned:
we are called God's own,

welcomed as children of God;
we are claimed by Christ,
united with Christ,
united with one another and the Christian community
of every time and place;
we are commissioned to Christ's ministry
of love, peace, and justice, and strengthened by the Holy Spirit
for the work of the church in the world.

A Reading from Scripture

Matthew 3: 13-17 (Jesus is baptized in the Jordan River)

Presentation (Margaret Duff, Worship Committee Chair)

On behalf of the congregation of Melrose United Church,
I present Morgan May Rankin, daughter of Aric and Michelle Rankin for initiation into the body of Christ through baptism.

Profession of Faith and Promises

Do you believe in God, Source of love;
in Jesus Christ, love incarnate;
and in the Holy Spirit, love's power.

I do, by the grace of God.

Desiring the freedom of new life in Christ,
do you seek to resist evil, and to live in love and justice?

I do, God being my helper.

Will you follow the way of Jesus Christ?

I will, God being my helper.

Will you join

with your brothers and sisters in this community of faith to celebrate God's presence, live with respect in creation, and love and serve others?

I will, God being my helper.

Commitment of Parents

In baptism, Morgan marks an important step in her journey of faith.

Will you pray for her encourage her by your words and actions, and walk with her in the way of Christ?

I will, God being my helper.

Commitment of Godparents

Recognizing that many persons nurture and influence the life of a child will you support Morgan and her parents as they grow in faith?

I will, God being my helper.

Commitment of the Community of Faith

**The congregation may stand, as they are able*

As the people of Melrose United Church, do you commit yourselves to offer support and nurture for these persons within a community that worships God, loves and serves others, seeks justice, and resists evil?

We do, by the grace of God.

Affirmation of Faith

We are not alone,
we live in God's world.

We believe in God:
who has created and is creating,
who has come in Jesus,
the Word made flesh,
to reconcile and make new,
who works in us and others
by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the Church:
to celebrate God's presence,
to live with respect in Creation,
to love and serve others,
to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen,
our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death,
God is with us.
We are not alone.

Thanks be to God.

(the congregation is seated)

Prayer of Thanksgiving and the Pouring of Water

Let us pray:
Gracious and Holy God,
we bless you for the gift of life,
and within it, the gift of water.
Over its unshaped promise your Spirit hovered at creation.
By water, comes the growth of the earth.
Through water, you led the children of Israel to freedom.
In the waters of the Jordan your Child Jesus was baptized.

Now may your Spirit be upon us and what we do,
that this water may be a sign for all of new life in Christ,
in whose name we pray.

Amen.

~The water is poured into the font~

May God's Spirit be upon us and these waters of daily use,
which we now use
to baptize and to welcome.

The Act of Baptism

Morgan May,
I baptize you,
in the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.
One God, mother of us all. Amen.

Marking with the Sign of the Cross

Morgan May, child of God, from this day forward, you bear the sign of Jesus Christ. May the Holy Spirit, Love's power, guide you, inspire you, and work within you, all the days of your life. Amen.

Lighting of the Baptismal Candle (the baptismal candle is lit)

Morgan May, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good works, and give glory to God.

All: Amen!

Presentation of Books, Prayer Shawls, Certificates

One: Morgan, we present you with a book, prayer shawl, and Certificate of Baptism. May the stories of our faith support and encourage you as you grow in your relationship with God. And may your prayer shawl remind you that you are wrapped in God's love and care
all of your life.

- ◆ POSTLUDE

◆ Melrose Events ◆

◆ Worship Next Week ◆

On Advent's third Sunday, we will light the candle of joy. This is the Sunday of Advent commonly called "Gaudete", from the Latin word for "Rejoice" -- the first word of the ancient Introit for Advent III ("Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say rejoice"). The sermon time will concern itself with Isaiah 61, 1-11. This text draws the picture of overwhelming need that is drawing divine attention. God's anointed is sent to the oppressed, to the ones whose hearts are crushed, to the captives, the imprisoned and to all who mourn. Of necessity, God's anointed will confront the perpetrators and sources of oppression, marginalization, hopelessness and despair. The divine mandate is to reverse seemingly hopeless circumstances and effect a transformation in a downtrodden people's identity and activity. The commission to "proclaim liberty" is language from the instruction for observing the Jubilee Year. During the Jubilee property and people held as payment for debt were returned to the families to which they originally belonged. Moreover the language in Isaiah 61 is a clear indication that the liberty proclaimed is intended to be made permanent through new social and economic relationships within the community. The comfort provided by God's anointed to the despairing in Jerusalem will change the way the people see themselves. No longer will they be humiliated, fragmented and dispirited. They will now be able to accomplish an important goal: the rebuilding of Jerusalem as a city where, with God's blessing, righteousness and justice flourish.

◆ From Ralph: A Melrose Financial Update ◆

This has been a challenging year for the financial health of Melrose. Our rental income unexpectedly declined due to the temporary loss of a tenant as well as a reduction in special event rentals. The maintenance of our property has continued to be a strain, as we repaired the inevitable failings of an old building and equipment, and we renovated space for a new tenant. Payroll expenses have grown as we endeavoured to bring our staff up to a living wage, and we experienced additional costs to provide coverage during an extended medical absence.

Our expenses so far this year have exceeded revenues by about $115,000. We have drawn heavily on funds held by our Trustees to cover this deficit, and we will need to obtain additional funds from the Trustees this month. Our weekly donations this year have matched those received to this point last year. However, as our expenses continue to grow, we must strive for growth in our donations as well. Please consider if you are able to increase you donations to Melrose, either on a weekly or monthly basis or as a one-time extra donation. Every donation, no matter of size, is helpful.

◆ Thank you ◆

A very special thank you to all who helped with the reception following the Candlelight service. Thank you to Jeff Ogino, Linda and Sheri Saunders, Denise and Phil Farrauto, Sandra Winninger, Barb and Keith Mann, and to all those who donated baked goodies. THANK YOU from Kathy Ross.
